(1) Defendant ConnectU LLC's Motion For Sanctions In Violation Of Court Order;

1 (2&3) Plaintiff's and Defendants' Motions To Seal Records; and,

2 (4) Plaintiff TheFaceBook Inc.'s Motion To Compel Supplemental Responses To FaceBook
3 Inc.'s First Sets Of Form Interrogatories And Requests For Admission,

4 came on for hearing before the Honorable Socrates P. Manoukian on March 10, 2006 at 10:00
5 a.m. in Department 7. The matter having been submitted, the Court orders as follows:

6 I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

7 Brothers Cameron ("Cameron") and Tyler ("Tyler") Winklevoss and Divya Narendra 8 ("Narendra") allege that in their junior year at Harvard University they conceived an idea to 9 connect people using computer networks that database friends with common interests at universities and colleges. Thereafter, they created a website and a business, ConnectU LLC 10 ("ConnectU"). Mark Zuckerberg ("Zuckerberg") was a partner, in charge of completing the software code to run the website. After completing the Harvard ConnectU website, Zuckerberg 11 created his own website, TheFaceBook, Inc.. ConnectU filed an action in the United States 12 District Court in Massachusetts ("the Massachusetts action"). ConnectU alleges Zuckerberg stole the idea.

13 On August 17, 2005, TheFaceBook, Inc. ("Plaintiff") sued ConnectU LLC, Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, Howard Winklevoss, and Divya Narendra (collectively 14 "Defendants") for misappropriation, unfair competition and violation of Penal Code §502(C)(unlawful interference with computer systems and computer data). Plaintiff alleges that 15 Defendants gained unauthorized access to Plaintiff's website and extracted, or "stole," about 3 million email addresses. At the time, TheFaceBook's offices and website servers were located in 16 California.

17 Defendant Howard Winklevoss ("Howard") is the Winklevoss father. It is alleged that 18 Howard invested over $300,000 in ConnectU. Howard is involved in other business entities, such as Winklevoss Consultants, Inc., Winklevoss LLC, The Winklevoss Group, and Winklevoss 19 Technologies LLC (collectively "Winklevoss companies"). Howard has provided support for ConnectU's existence, such as financial investment, business guidance, office space, lawyers and 20 employees. ConnectU is located at the same address as the Winklevoss companies. ConnectU has offered services at California universities. Defendants claim there is no trade secret at-issue 21 because Plaintiff shares the information Defendants obtained with others. Also, Defendants claim anyone can access TheFaceBook's website and download the information they allegedly 22 obtained.

23 Also, Defendants claim this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over them. On October 25, 24 2005, Defendants filed motions to quash service of summons and complaint because of lack of personal jurisdiction. On November 3, 2005, this Court (W. Elfving) postponed Defendants' 25 motion to quash to allow Plaintiff to "obtain discovery related to jurisdiction." On January 6, 26 2006, this Court (D. Woodhouse), ordered the depositions of defendants ConnectU, Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, Howard Winklevoss, and Divya Narendra be limited to issues 27 directly relating to personal jurisdiction topics.

II. DISCUSSION

A. Parties Arguments

ConnectU asserts that at deposition Plaintiff imposed questions outside of the scope of the issue of personal jurisdiction in violation of this Court's prior order. Plaintiff counters that the questions were directly related to issues raised in the motion to quash service of summons and complaint for lack of personal jurisdiction and directly related to topics 11, 12, and 13 in the notice of deposition.

B. Analysis

Jurisdiction. When a court finds that in the interests of substantial justice an action shall be heard in a forum outside this state, the court shall stay or dismiss the action in whole or in part on any conditions that may be just. CCP §410.30. The issue regarding personal jurisdiction will be determined later. Some preliminary considerations are relevant. It has been held that the commission of an intentional tort that is directed at a California resident may provide sufficient minimum contacts to support the exercise of personal jurisdiction. Integral Development Corp. v. Weissenbach (2002) 99 Cal.App.4th 576, 587 (citing Calder v. Jones (1984) 465 U.S. 783 [104 S.Ct. 1482]);(other citations omitted). In Calder, the U.S. Supreme Court held that personal jurisdiction over a writer for a national newspaper based in Florida was proper because although the writer did personally visit California, the writer relied on telephone calls to sources in California for information contained in the article. Id. Integral Development Corp., supra, 99 Cal.App.4th at 587 (citing Calder, supra 465 U.S. at 789). Further, the court found the defendants must have reasonably expected to be haled into court in California to defend against plaintiff's tort claims. Id. (citations omitted).

Separate Statement. CRC 335(a) requires that any motion involving the content of a discovery request or the responses to such a request shall be accompanied by a separate statement. Defendants' motion for sanctions does not contain a separate statement. Defendants provide various deposition transcripts and in the memorandum in support of the motion set forth some information for this Court to consider. However, this Court lacks the information necessary for this Court to understand each discovery request that is at issue. DENIED.

2. Plaintiff's And Defendants' Motions To Seal Records

A. Parties Arguments

Defendants assert there is an overriding interest in sealing the motion for sanctions; partial transcripts and excerpts of the deposition transcripts of Defendants because the transcripts contain confidential and proprietary information which Defendant has kept confidential. Further there is a substantial probability the overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed; the proposed sealing is narrowly tailored to the items listed-above and there is no less restrictive means to achieve the overriding interest. Defendant claims Plaintiff jointly stipulates to this motion. Plaintiff concurrently brings an assented to motion to file under seal Plaintiff's motion to compel supplemental responses to Plaintiff's first sets of form interrogatories and

1 requests for admission, (ii) statement of matters in dispute in support of Plaintiff's motion, and 2 (iii) exhibits 29 and 30 in support of the motion to compel.

3 B. Analysis

4 Sealing Records. Parties seeking to protect trade secrets must overcome the Rule of 5 Court, Rule 243.1 presumption in favor of public access. In Re Providian Credit Card Cases, 6 (2002) 96 Cal.App.4th 292, 301; NBC Subsidiary (KNBC-TV), Inc. v. Sup.Ct. (1999) 20 Cal.4th
 7 1178. To seal records, the court must make findings of fact establishing each of the following:
 8 (1) There exists an overriding interest that overcomes the right of public access to the record; (2) 9 The overriding interest supports sealing the record; (3) A substantial probability exists that the 10 overriding interest will be prejudiced if the record is not sealed; (4) The proposed order is 11 narrowly tailored; and, (5) No less restrictive means exist to achieve the overriding interest.
 12 C.C.C. 243.1(d). However, Rules 243.1 and 243.2 do not apply to discovery motions and 13 records filed or lodged in connection with discovery motions and records filed or lodged in 14 connection with discovery motions or proceedings. CRC 243.1 (a)(2).

15 The parties ask this court to seal the aforementioned records. The records concern a 16 discovery motion and Rules 243.1 and 243.2 specifically do not apply to discovery motions.
 17 However, this Court may rely upon other rules to determine whether or not to seal a record. For 18 instance, the right to privacy is a Constitutional protection contemplated by this Court. Also, the 19 Court is required to preserve the secrecy of an alleged trade secret by reasonable means, 20 including sealing the records in the action. CC §3426.5. Good cause shown, the motions to seal 21 are GRANTED.

22 3. TheFaceBook Inc.'s Motion To Compel Supplemental Responses

23 A. Parties Arguments

24 Plaintiff asserts Defendants answers to Form Interrogatories numbers 50.3 – 50.6 and 25 16.1 and 16.2 and Form Interrogatory number 17.1 associated with Requests For Admission 2, 6, 26 10, 12, 13, 24, and 2-25 with respect to the individual Defendants are incomplete, evasive and 27 contain improper objections. Also, Plaintiff contends Defendants avoided numerous Form 28 Interrogatories by unjustly disagreeing with the definition of "Incident." Defendant counters that Plaintiff continues to seek unrestricted discovery, in violation of prior orders; (2) that Form Interrogatories designed for Personal Injury or Contract actions are not relevant to this context; and, (3) that their objections have merit.

29 B. Analysis

30 Burden of Proof. The moving party must state reasons why further answers should be 31 ordered but the burden of proof is on the responding party to justify any objection or failure to 32 fully answer the interrogatories. Coy v. Sup.Ct. (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210, 220-221.

33 Each answer in the response to interrogatories must be as complete and straightforward 34 as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. If an interrogatory 35 cannot be answered completely, it shall be answered to the extent possible. CCP §2030.220. If 36 the responding party does not have personal knowledge sufficient to respond fully to an 37 interrogatory, that party shall so state, but shall make a reasonable and good faith effort to obtain

1 the information by inquiry to other natural persons or organizations, except where the 2 information is equally available to the propounding party. CCP §2030.220 (c).

3 Form Interrogatories 2.11, 2.12, 4.1, 4.2, 8.2, 8.3, 8.4, 11.1, 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, 12.4, 12.5, 4 12.6, 12.7, 13.1, 13.2, 16.1, 16.2, 16.3, 16.6, 16.7, and 16.9 contain the term “INCIDENT,” 5 defined by Plaintiff to means “unauthorized access of Facebook’s data.” All Defendants 6 responded to these interrogatories that the interrogatory is “[N]ot applicable as there was no 7 ‘unauthorized access of Facebook’s data.’”

8 Plaintiff contends that Defendants’ responses amount to a denial that the incident ever 9 occurred. Defendant counters that Plaintiff seeks to obtain information outside of this Court’s 10 prior order, and also that there was no unauthorized access because the information is freely 11 available to any person accessing facebook.com.

12 This Court’s prior orders limited discovery to jurisdiction issues. The orders would have 13 little meaning or effect if Plaintiff would be allowed to circumvent the orders by compelling 14 written discovery on any issue. Consistent with Judge Woodhouse’s prior order, Plaintiff’s 15 motion to compel is limited to issues of personal jurisdiction.

16 Second, Plaintiff’s definition of the term “INCIDENT,” if assented to by Defendants, 17 would require Defendants to admit that any access of facebook.com was unauthorized.
 18 Concerning admissions, generally, a court “cannot force a litigant to admit any fact if he is 19 willing to risk a perjury prosecution or financial sanctions (by denying them).” Holguin v.
Superior Court (1972) 22 Cal.App.3d 812, 820. This does not mean that Defendants are 20 absolved from other portions of the code. To the extent the questions are within the proper scope 21 of discovery, the individual Defendants must provide code-compliant answers. Defendants’ 22 assertion is that there was no incident because their access, if at all, was authorized. This 23 response is argumentative and evasive. A complete response would at least answer the 24 interrogatory, qualified by any objection. Of course, this Court does not ignore the fact that 25 these parties should have resolved this dispute informally, stipulating to a mutually suitable 26 definition, such as “the facts giving rise to the Complaint in this matter,” so Plaintiff shoulders 27 some amount of responsibility. The parties shall agree that the term “INCIDENT” means “the 28 alleged facts giving rise to the complaint filed in this matter.”

29 Generally, ConnectU does not contest personal jurisdiction thus complete responses to 30 Form Interrogatories 2.11, 2.12, 4.1, 4.2, 8.2, 8.3, 8.4, 11.1, 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, 12.4, 12.5, 12.6, 31 12.7, 13.1, 13.2, 16.1, 16.2, 16.3, 16.6, 16.7, and 16.9 are due. GRANTED.

32 As to the individual Defendants, their responses that the interrogatories are inapplicable 33 because “there was no ‘unauthorized access of the Facebook’s data,’” are stricken and the 34 following applies:

35 Form Interrogatory 2.11 seeks information if a Defendant was acting as an agent or 36 employee for any PERSON? Accessing a website in California could assist in the determination 37 of personal jurisdiction. GRANTED.

1           Form Interrogatory No. 2.12 requests identification of whether anyone had a disability or 2 condition that may have contributed to the INCIDENT. This interrogatory does not appear 3 related to the issue of personal jurisdiction and Plaintiff does not explain how this information 4 will lead to assisting the determination of personal jurisdiction. DENIED without prejudice to 5 demanding further responses if this Court retains jurisdiction.

6           Form Interrogatory Nos. 4.1 & 4.2 seek identification of insurance policies. This 7 interrogatory does not appear related to the issue of personal jurisdiction and Plaintiff does not 8 explain how this information will lead to assisting the determination of personal jurisdiction. If a 9 Defendant has an insurance policy in California, this response would be revealed in Plaintiff's 10 other discovery requests that seek information concerning any contracts in California. DENIED 11 without prejudice.

12           Form Interrogatory No. 8.2 seeks the nature, job title at the time of the incident and the 13 date the employment began. This interrogatory could be related to personal jurisdiction.
 14 GRANTED.

15           Form Interrogatory Nos. 8.3 & 8.4 requests compensation information. This 16 interrogatory does not appear related to the issue of personal jurisdiction and Plaintiff does not 17 explain how this information will lead to assisting the determination of personal jurisdiction.
 18 Moreover, when or how much Defendants are paid is not related to any allegations in the 19 Complaint in this matter. DENIED without prejudice.

20           Form Interrogatory No. 11.1 asks for information concerning any claims or demands for 21 compensation for personal injuries. This matter does not involve personal injuries of the 22 individual Defendants. Also, the interrogatory is not related to personal jurisdiction. DENIED.

23           Form Interrogatory Nos. 12.1 - 13.2 requests information concerning Defendants' any 24 investigations of the INCIDENT. This interrogatory does not appear related to the issue of 25 personal jurisdiction and Plaintiff does not explain how this information will lead to assisting the 26 determination of personal jurisdiction. DENIED without prejudice.

27           Form Interrogatory Nos. 16.1 – 16.16.3, 16.6, 16.7 and 16.9 request information and or 28 documents concerning damages. This is not related to personal jurisdiction. DENIED without 29 prejudice.

30           Form Interrogatory Nos. 50.3 – 50.6 request information concerning any agreements 31 alleged in the pleadings. Defendants responded that they do not understand that there is an 32 agreement alleged in the pleadings. This is evasive. Paragraphs 11 – 14 of Plaintiff's complaint 33 concern a user agreement. Moreover, this is related to personal jurisdiction. Defendants should 34 provide complete and straightforward responses. GRANTED.

35           Form Interrogatory No. 17.1 asks whether or not responses to each request for admission 36 served is an unqualified admission, and if not, identification of additional information concerning 37 the qualification. The contested Requests For Admission are:

1        Request For Admission No. 2 seeks an admission that each Defendant has “accessed 2 TheFaceBook website for the purpose of acquiring email addresses previously registered with 3 TheFaceBook.” This is related to personal jurisdiction.

4        Howard denied the request, and in response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 stated that he has 5 not accessed the site. This is not an unqualified admission. A correct response requires 6 identification of all facts upon which the response is based, the names and addresses of and 7 telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the 8 facts, as well as the location of the documents. GRANTED.

9        ConnectU and the other individual Defendants responded that “previously registered” 10 email accounts is not established. This is evasive. It is clear that Plaintiff meant that a 11 previously registered email account is one that existed at the Defendants allegedly accessed 12 Plaintiff’s website, if ever. Also, the other individual Defendants also state that they accessed 13 the website as members of ConnectU. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon 14 which the response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with 15 knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the 16 documents. GRANTED.

17        Request For Admission No. 3 requests whether Defendants accessed THEFACEBOOK 18 website to identify all colleges and universities included in the online directory. If it can be 19 established Defendants intended to harm THEFACEBOOK this request becomes related to 20 personal jurisdiction.

21        ConnectU responded that it does not recall the purpose of visiting the website.
22 ConnectU’s response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 is that it does not recall the purpose of the visit 23 to the website. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the response is 24 based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the 25 facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
26 GRANTED.

27        Howard denied the request and then responded to 17.1 that he has not taken the acts 28 included in the request. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 29 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the 30 facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
31 GRANTED.

32        The other individual Defendants state that they accessed the website as members of 33 ConnectU. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the response is 34 based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the 35 facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
36 GRANTED.

37        Request For Admission No. 4 requests whether Defendants accessed THEFACEBOOK’s 38 website to identify website features offered by THEFACEBOOK. This request is not directly 39

1 related to personal jurisdiction because stopping by to check out a website does not indicate 2 nefarious conduct. DENIED without prejudice as to the individual Defendants

3 ConnectU did not admit or deny because the phrase "visible website features" is vague 4 and ambiguous. Vague and ambiguous is recognized as a nuisance objection. Standon v.
5 Superior Court (1990) Cal.App.3d 898, 901. ConnectU admits visiting the website, but did not 6 understand what was on it before it was visited. A correct response requires identification of all 7 facts upon which the response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of 8 anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the 9 location of the documents. GRANTED.

10 Request For Admission No. 5 requests Defendants admit whether they accessed the 11 website for the purpose of identifying what functions are permitted by Plaintiff's website. This 12 is not related to personal jurisdiction. DENIED without prejudice as to the individual 13 Defendants.

14 ConnectU did not admit or deny because the phrase "visible website features" is vague
15 and ambiguous. ConnectU admits visiting the website, but did not understand what was on it 16 before it was visited. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 17 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge 18 of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
19 GRANTED.

20 Request For Admission No. 6 seeks an admission that each Defendant has accessed 21 Plaintiff's website by deliberately circumventing security features intended to limit access to the 22 website. This is related to personal jurisdiction because it implies nefarious conduct.

23 ConnectU denied the request, then in response to no. 17 stated that its access was 24 authorized. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the response is 25 based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the 26 facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
27 GRANTED.

28 Howard denied the request, and in response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 stated that he has 29 not accessed the site. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 30 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with 31 knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the 32 documents. GRANTED.

33 The other individual Defendants admit accessing Plaintiff's website, but only in their 34 capacity as a member of ConnectU. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon 35 which the response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with 36 knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the 37 documents. GRANTED.

1           Request For Admission No. 7 requests Defendants admit they accessed Plaintiff's 2 website using more than one individual member ID account. This is related to the issue of 3 personal jurisdiction in establishing whether and how Defendants accessed Plaintiff's website.

4           ConnectU denied the request, then did not respond to no. 17. A correct response to Form 5 Interrogatory 17.1 requires identification of all facts upon which the response is based, the names 6 and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any 7 documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents. GRANTED.

8           Howard denied the request, and in response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 stated that he has 9 not accessed the site. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 10 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge 11 of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
12 GRANTED.

13           The other individual Defendants admit accessing Plaintiff's website, but only in their 14 capacity as a member of ConnectU. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon 15 which the response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with 16 knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the 17 documents. GRANTED.

18           Request For Admission No. 8 requests Defendants admit whether they used the e-mail 19 addresses of THEFACEBOOK members obtained by accessing THEFACEBOOK website in 20 order to solicit memberships to CONNECTU.

21           ConnectU denied the request, then in response to no. 17 stated that its members have 22 offered or requested at times that CONNECTU use or obtain email addresses from FACEBOOK
23 to invite their friends on FACEBOOK's website to join CONNECTU. A correct response 24 requires identification of all facts upon which the response is based, the names and addresses of 25 and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of 26 the facts, as well as the location of the documents. GRANTED.

27           Howard denied the request, and in response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 stated that he has 28 not accessed the site. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 29 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge 30 of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
31 GRANTED.

32           The other individual Defendants admit accessing Plaintiff's website, but only in their 33 capacity as a member of ConnectU. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon 34 which the response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with 35 knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the 36 documents. GRANTED.

1           Request For Admission No. 9 requested an admission as to whether or not Defendants 2 distributed e-mails to members of THEFACEBOOK's for the purpose of soliciting them for the 2 CONNECTU website. This is related to personal jurisdiction.

3           ConnectU denied the request, then in response to no. 17 stated that its members have 4 offered or requested at time that CONNECTU use or obtain email addresses from FACEBOOK
5 to invite their friends on FACEBOOK's website to join CONNECTU. A correct response 6 requires identification of all facts upon which the response is based, the names and addresses of
and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents. GRANTED.

7           Howard denied the request, and in response to Form Interrogatory 17.1 stated that he has 8 not accessed the site. A correct response requires identification of all facts upon which the 9 response is based, the names and addresses of and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents.
10 GRANTED.

11           The other individual Defendants denied the request, but in response to No. 17.1 state that 12 they accessed the website only in their capacity as a member of ConnectU. A correct response 13 requires identification of all facts upon which the response is based, the names and addresses of
and telephone numbers of anyone with knowledge of the facts, and any documents in support of the facts, as well as the location of the documents. GRANTED.

14           Request For Admission No. 10 requests an admission that each Defendant has
